Ibrahim, Sultan and Ileana, Sultana Outlands

Ibrahim and Ileana, Sultan and Sultana of the Glorious Outlands, send thankful and heartfelt greetings.

As the hour of Our departure draws close, We would wish the very best to Our beloved Amir and Amira, Hoegaarden and Chiara. May Your reign be wondrous and full of joy!

Before We depart, We would share a few final thoughts with you.

Unto Our Royal Household, We give most grateful thanks. They have fed Us, cared for Us and counseled Us, and We shall not forget their devotion. Unto Our Barons and Baronesses, and Our Kingdom Officers, your support and courtesy is appreciated more than can be imagined. Unto the gracious souls who stand united beneath the Stag, We can say only this: Our pride in you and Our gratitude to you is boundless beyond the stars in the desert sky.

We are forever thankful for the opportunity to serve as the Crown of the Outlands. We have no doubt that Outlanders will continue to shine as an extraordinary example to all who participate in this wondrous game.

Last, but not least, in the immortal work of another bard, "Don't Panic, and Thanks for all the Fish."

The Lord of Outlandish Tourney and the Outlandish Blade Tourney!

There are other tourneys as well in a variety of formats to challenge the mettle of all; and this year, for the very first time, the Outlandish Grand Duke Challenge! This event, for dukes and non dukes alike, promises to provide some of the best fighting to be found anywhere. More detailed information can be found on our web site http://www.grandoutlandish.org/

The new site is more sheltered than sites we've had in previous years; there are trees and gently rolling open spaces, very few cactus, and a fence around the site to assure that the medieval atmosphere we want to recreate can be attained. There is plenty of parking for your vehicles, trailers, and RV's (no RV hookups or dump stations) in spacious, level parking lots.

Directions: Take I-40 to the Cedillo Exit (exit 181). Go east (toward Edgewood) on Old Hwy 66 until you come to Highway 217. Turn right (south) on 217 for approximately 4 miles until you come to Juan Tomas Road. Turn left on Juan Tomas (east) for approximately 1 mile, then turn left (north) on Barton road. You'll see a high, woven wire fence at the corner of Juan Tomas and Barton roads, this is the site. Go approximately 0.7 miles on Barton Road and then enter the site at the large gate on the right. Please don't park on or obstruct Juan Tomas or Barton roads while approaching the site.

Estrella Arts and Sciences Competition Results

Greetings to all from Mistress Averil, Laurel Representative to the Outlands War Council. We accidentally published the 2004 results in April, Here are the final standings for the 2005 A&S competition. I apologize for the lack of titles- I left them all out, since I only know some of them.

European Dance:
1. Vyncent alte Woodgate and Elena verch Gwilim –West (entered for Atenveldt/Caid)
2. Arwen Southerwood and Guillaume de Gonzac- Outlands
3. al-Barran Court Dancers (Barbara, Melody, Canus, Thalauriana, Lyneya, Y, Cristobal, Hanniya, Bianca, Marra and Ivanna)- Outlands

Archery Equipment:
1. Fergus MacLennan- Outlands
2. Bartholomew Hightower of Canterbury- Artemisia
3. Bran Patrick- Atenveldt

Period Storage Containers:
1. Aaron Graves and Dairine Moro'uhigin- Atenveldt
2. Coriander of Johnstone- Outlands
3. Cassia Murriraux- Atenveldt

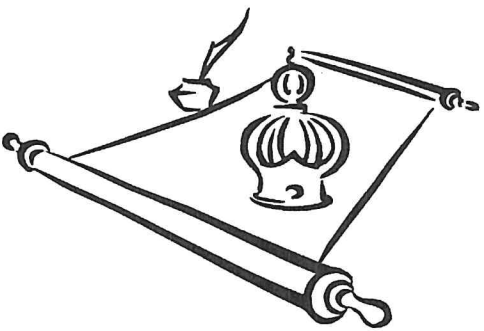
There were quite a few great entries from the Outlands. Lady Barbara formed an impromptu group – the Outlands Youth Court Dancers- Lord Chase from Dragonsspine, Amanda and Mariah from Fontaine; and from al-Barran: Joseph, Shean, Ian, Starfire, Kamryn, Sarah, Isabelle, Kaylin, Kevin, John, Troy, Rachel and Donovan. The judges and spectators (including Sultana Ileana) were particularly impressed that Lady Barbara had recruited and trained these young dancers on-site and they performed the dance quite well.

I would like to thank the Outlands judges for this competition: Baron Duncan for Archery Equipment, Baron Roger for Period Storage Containers and Mistress Joella for European Dance. The contribution of their time and expertise is greatly appreciated! I would also like to thank Viscountess Katya for agreeing to fill in for Lady Chiara. She handled the scoring very efficiently. Thanks also to Mistress Monika and Mistress Bahiyyah for helping out at the competition. I think everyone there had a good time. Although we didn't get the War Point for Outlands/Artemisia (the war point is decided using first place entries only) the Outlands did have more top three entries than any other kingdom.

Once again, the categories for Estrella 2006 are: Metheglyn [herbal flavored mead]; Calligraphy and Illumination [a single sheet (any media) no larger than 3 x 5 feet]; Articulated Gauntlets [these do not have to be SCA combat legal].

Possible categories for Estrella 2007 were discussed before the competition; the final categories for 2007 will be announced after Treaty Negotiations in October 2005. Master Rhys Afalwin will be replacing me in the next few months as the Laurel Representative to the Outlands War Council. I would like to thank Their Majesties for this opportunity to serve the Outlands and many, many thanks to the wonderful OWC Pelican Representatives that I worked with, Mistress Madigan and Mistress Elizabeth, for keeping me on track and for all the encouragement!

In service to the Outlands,
Mistress Averil duBois d'Avignon
Laurel Representative serving on the Outlands War Council



Herald's Office - White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

The White Stag decision meeting schedule: 8 May, 12 noon, at my residence. Lunch and drinks will be provided - please advise if you plan to attend so I know how much food to prepare, and let me know of any food allergies/aversions or dietary restrictions. If you wish to bring a dish to share, that is also welcome. Healthy children welcome. I have cats, for those with allergies. Call or e-mail for directions.

PLEASE NOTE: The Rampart Herald office has been broken down into three separate offices. It has been too large to expect of one person for quite some time, and all those who have labored under such a workload as Rampart have the gratitude of my office for their Herculean efforts. Lord Cameron de Blakstan is the new internal submissions herald, and all submissions and branch checks should be sent to him for the creation of the LoP. His address is: Kerry Pratt, 1914A Seneca Avenue, Cheyenne, WY 82001, and his e-mail address is deblakstan@bresnan.net. Cameron will then forward checks to the Kingdom Exchequer and submissions forms to Rampart. Lord Taliesin ab Iago is the new notifications clerk, and will be mailing letters to provide the results of the Rampart and Laurel decisions. Transitional issues and my recent illness have caused some delays in getting Lord Taliesin started, but I expect that everything will be working just fine by the time you read this. Both of these offices are in need of titles, but we'll be working on that.

HERALDIC MYTHBUSTING: There are several myths that surface from time to time regarding submissions at war, including "It's faster to submit at war because submissions go straight to Laurel," "Anything submitted at war [Pennsic] will automatically pass because so many heralds are there [all the College of Arms is there] to check it over, so Laurel will know it doesn't have any problems," and "All kingdoms accept submissions at war." None is true - the Administrative Handbook requires that submissions be made through the kingdom of residence, so all submissions collected at war must be picked up by the participating kingdoms or mailed to the appropriate submissions officer after war is over. This, and the fact that large wars frequently generate many more submissions than a kingdom normally processes in a given month, means that it may actually take longer to hear back on a submission made at war. Submission at war is no guarantee of registrability - not every herald who does consultations at war has a lot of experience, and they don't all check each submission. Typically, only one or two heralds deal directly with any submission. And no kingdom is bound to accept submissions from any war. Outlands traditionally accepts submissions made at Estrella, but we don't normally have any submissions made at other wars.

LOAR RESULTS: No LoAR has been received at the time of this writing, but the November 2004 LoAR has been sent for publishing, and should be received well before this issue comes out.

I remain yours in glad service and duty,

THL Sorcha MacLeod

Earl Marshall's Office - Kingdom Earl Marshall

Greetings to all.

It has been my honor to be chosen to serve as the next Earl Marshall for the Kingdom of the Outlands. As such, it is appropriate for an introduction letter for those who may not know me.

I am known in the SCA as Sir Mavrikii Andronikov. I have been active in the SCA since 1985 and in the Outlands since 1988. I currently reside in Windkeep and have been active in various parts of the heavy fighting, fencing, archery and equestrian facets for much of my time in the SCA. I have also been known to do some armouring occasionally. I have a lovely lady, THL Kaleriia who is also a fighter and one son, Jacob.

I would like to take the time to thank Sir Lavan for his time in the office. There have been many changes in that time, and he has handled them well.

I hope that you will find the Marshallate approachable and open. Some have asked what changes I hope to make. The answer I will offer is: not much, just to continue trying to make things simpler and more available for those who are not in our population centers. The experimental weapons project seems to be going well, and the exchange of ideas I have been hearing on other parts of the fighting community has been open and admirable.

As in any office, no person can do the job alone. If any of you have thought about becoming a marshall, please see your local officers or drop me an e-mail.

Fight Safe.

Sir Mavrikii Andronikov
